Welcome to Le Manoir de Lan Kerellec

A FAMILY'S ART

The Daubé family invites you to the Manor house of Lan Kerellec. Built at the beginning of last century by the "Côte de Granit Rose" (Pink Granite Coast), it arose from the vision of an artist: the one of painter Pierre Gervais.
Bought in 1925 by the Daubé family, it kept its spirit ever since and is still the property of the family. Émile Daubé (1885-1961), painter closes to Marin Marie and professor in the Academy of Arts, immortalized there his passion for arts before transmitting it to his descendants. Now is your turn to dive into the exceptional frame of the Manor house, source of inspiration for all of those who stay here.

HAPPINESS
IN YOUR PLATE

Staying at the Manoir is also the opportunity to feast!
Let be surprised by Anthony Avoine's cuisine, our young Breton Chef. Passionate about his job, he will delight your taste buds with both sea flavors and a regional identity. .
Anthony creates his menus for you depending on seasonal products, daily catch, inspiration of the moment ... And a constant creativity.
All the recipes and dishes cooked in the kitchens of MLK are produced with raw and fresh ingredients, they are "Home-made" with love and respect for the good and beautiful things.

MANOIR
DE
LAN KERELLEC
CÔTE DE GRANIT ROSE
1925

" Lunch " menu

45 € First course, main course and dessert

40 € First course, main course or main course, dessert

Carrots textures, lomo and thyme

*****

Black mullet, corn and poultry juice

*****

Beet textures, blackberries and lime

*****

Extra dessert miniatures cart at your choice : 8 €

Any changes will result in an additional charge based on the menu
Menu served at the lunch only and not suggested beyond 7 people